NCS tip of the month. "One-Two-Three"

Wait a few seconds before keying the mike. Friends may not be finished talking and may be pausing to take a breath before continuing their QSO.

This will limit the refrain, DOUBLE-DOUBLE!

Congratulations... New Hams!

66th Annual Ohiopyle, Pa. Buckwheat Festival

For more than a half century Ray-KB3HQV has been helping the local Ohio pyle fire department during this early fall celebration. Each year they welcome thousands of visitors to a filling breakfast of buckwheat and regular pancakes, bacon and sausage. Ray reports that this year they cooked 4,000 pounds of sausage, two tons of pealed, then fried potatoes along with 1,300 pounds of flour to feed the masses.

Sadly, there are no photos of Ray and his friends working behind the scenes though we have a WQED-TV link of the remarkable goings on in past years. . www.wqed.org/tv/cooks/chrischat/2009/09/

Ray and his fellow volunteers are hard workers and enjoy pitching in during these events. On November 14th an appreciation dinner was held for Ray and the gang recognizing their work and dedication. Now, wouldn't you know it, Ray was there helping out and cleaning up at his own dinner!

A Christmas Ham By WA2AXZ

'™was a night before Christmas and all through my shack

The antenna was tuned and rotated

'round Facing the south, the noise level to drown

I sat in my old chair, earphones on my head I stopped spinning the dial, now what's being said?

Two old codgers were at it... they were making a scene

Which rig was garbage and which was a dream.

Down the band I slid like snow on the fly With nothing else heard, 40 meters I'd try With the snap of a switch, align grid and plate

Setting the filters, hey, there are my mates!

The "72 Chewers" were talking en masse Each taking turns, their greetings to pass One by one listing their holiday wishes Of rigs and amps and satellite dishes.

With a broad smile, the radio I keyed I checked myself in, what else would one need?

Then all of a sudden, a sizzle and spark
The lights blinked twice and then, all was dark.

A glow in the back of the rig's getting brighter

My heart sinks to the floor, The Transformer's On Fire!

Pull out the plugs... smoke's filling my nose I turn on the spray from close garden hose.

Open the windows, fling open the sash I toss out the rig to the ground with a crash

Stench from the smoke fills my poor head

Then all of a sudden I wake up in my bed.

What could have caused such a terrible nightmare?

Was it the beer, the nuts or the ham ill prepared?

To my delight the shack is intact and snow lightly falls

73's to my friends,

Merry Christmas to all!

A note from your editor ...

Our monthly newsletter "THE CHEW", contains information about the activities and participants in the 7.272 Ragchew Net. We rely on contributions of stories and pictures from the members to keep all of us up to date, impart information we can all use and, of course, to raise a smile and a chuckle or two. If you find a new "Taz" photo that can be used for future certificates and QSLs, that too is greatly appreciated. Please, e-mail your stories, tech info and photos to Loby at wa2axz@arrl.net Many Thanks!
